The name appears as Ludwick Fridley/Freidly/Friedly File #S 22248

His application for pension for Revolutionary War service was made 29 January 1833. He was living at Logan Township which was a part of Centre County at that time. His age was 74 years.

Ludwick states that he entered the service in the year 1775 as a substitute (he thinks sometime in the month of August). He was substitute service for a man named Wallick. His captain was Henry Weaver of New Holland and First Lt. George Fisher both of Lancaster Co.

He marched to Philadelphia and while at the Barrack a large company was enlisted out of his regiment into the Flying Camp. After that they were sent home on a conditional furlough and were not called out again.

Ludwick was then drafted into the Militia of Cocalico Twp., Lancaster Co. in the year 1777. He served under Col. Hoover and Captain Gingrich. This unit first was in charge of guarding the British prisoners. He was then discharged.

In 1778 Ludwick was again drafted and served with Captain Isaac Adams. He again marched to Paoli, Yellow Springs, Valley Forge, Farmersville, White Marsh Church, Chestnut Hill. There was a skirmish with the British there and Captain Witey was killed along with several other officers and privates. They retreated through Flour Town to a former encampment. Again he was discharged shortly after this.

Lastly, in the year 1779 he was mustered in Lancaster under the command of Col. Hoover. They were ordered to Lebanon to guard prisoners and took them to Phidalephia where they guarded them.

Ludwick was born in the yer 1758 in Cocalico Township, Lancaster Co., PA. In addition to Lancaster Co., he has lived in Cumberland Co. before moving to Logan Twp.

The pension file includes a hand written letter from the Frederick Fridley regarding his father's service application. Frederick lists his post office as Sugar Valley.

Ludwick was granted a pension of $23.33 per annum.

Miller Family History

Please note: John Christopher CULBY is listed as being a Hessian soldier who changed sides and fought in the Revolution. The relation of the Culby's and Millers is still being validated but family lore, family Bibles and letter link the two as follows. I do have pictures of some of the Culby's in my possession (handed down through the family) and would like more information concerning this link. Please contact Sheree Rodke.

The James Linn Family

James Linn was the son of Nina and Lawrence Linn. He grew up in the Woolrich church. They were the first occupants of the company owned house-currently 1012 Park Avenue, Woolrich. James (Jim) worked at the Woolrich Woolen Mill-part-time as a teenager, then as a young adult. He met a young lady at work, Rita Smith from McElhattan. They began dating in 1948 and were married in 1949. They had one child, Sharon born in 1949. They attended church regularly and Sharon was baptized there, as was her father before her. Rita taught the preschool Sunday school children's class. They resided in a half of a double house on Park Avenue, which was owned by Woolrich Inc. In 1956, Jim left Woolrich Inc. to work at Avco (currently Textron.), then Piper Aircraft. Because they had been living in a company-owned house, it was necessary for them to move. They bought a house in Avis, PA and transferred membership to the Avis Methodist Church, currently Avis United Methodist Church. James died in 2009, and Rita Smith Linn died in 2008. Sharon Linn Wagner still resides in Avis and is married to William Wagner Sr. They have a son, William Wagner Jr.

The Gore Sisters

Woolrich Woolen Mills had been recruiting workers by going to other communities and talking to members of large families. They approached the family of Arthur Durell Gore in Sinnemahoning. 3 of his daughters, Lillian, Hazel and Nina decided to take him up on the offer. Nina didn't really want to go, but Lillian talked her into going with her. They took a train to Woolrich and resided in a boarding house next to the current parsonage on Cemetery St.

Hazel went back home soon afterward. Nina had been dating a boy who had left Sinnemahoning to work in Ohio. She forgot about him in a hurry when she saw the boy who lived in the house 2 doors away, Lawrence Linn. Lawrence Linn was dating another girl at the time. He forgot about the other girl when he met Nina, and he and Nina eloped in 1924. Lawrence died in 1986 and Nina died in 1997 and Nina was active in the church. Lawrence received a gift of a book for perfect Sunday School attendance in 1921. They had one child James Linn and a granddaughter, Sharon Linn Wagner.

Lillian Gore met and married Charles Englert. In the early 1930's they adopted Lillian's niece, Helen (Pooch) Snyder. They lived 2 doors away from the church, on Park Avenue, Woolrich. They were active in the church. After her marriage, Helen Englert moved to Canada with her husband James Skiles. Later, Helen lived in Florida. They had two Sons, Chucky and Wally. Charles Englert died very suddenly from a heart attack in 1956. Lillian died in 1985, having moved to Florida to be near her daughter sometime around 1980.

Chatham and Agnes Linn's daughter Phyllis married Charles Biser and continued to be active in the church. They had 2 sons Daryl and Larry. Daryl and Larry grew up in the Woolrich church, Phyllis was active there. I don't remember a lot of details about them. Leah Oberheim's mother, Bertha was a daughter of Chatham and Agnes Linn, Phyllis' sister.
