Note:

No doubt there are other Revolutionary War Soldiers buried in Clinton County but, at this time no record them or proof could be found. The sources of those listed in this report were cemetery records, family genealogies, the Clinton County Veterans Affairs Office.

There are those who most likely lived in what is now Clinton County, at the time of their deaths who are buried in Davidson Burying Ground (now commonly known as Pine Creek Cemetery) , located in Porter Township, Lycoming County, about one mile west of Jersey Shore. See; Davidsons Burying Ground page 4 through 11, "Lycoming Co., PA and Miscellaneous Cemetery Records" Gen. 929.5 Dav V.1. Ross Library. It is reported 14 Revolutionary War Soldiers are buried in Davidson Cemetery.
